

Victoria Carlton Bio

Associate Attorney

Snow Jensen & Reece, PC, St. George, UT

Office phone: 435-628-3688

Cell phone: 801-850-1667

Victoria Carlton graduated with an undergraduate degree from Utah Valley University and her Juris Doctorate Degree from Brigham Young University Law School. Victoria also has a master's degree in public administration from Brigham Young University's Marriott School of Business. She is a practicing attorney and maintains an active law practice representing a wide range of clients in both the public and private sector, primarily focusing in the areas of real estate, business, civil litigation, and municipal law.

Prior to relocating to St. George, Victoria was a law clerk for the Honorable Judge David Hamilton, Honorable Judge David Connors, and the Honorable Judge Robert Dale in Utah's Second Judicial District in Davis County. Following law school, she completed a one-year legal fellowship with the Western District of Texas's Federal Public Defender's Office located in San Antonio, Texas.

She currently serves on the Board of the Women's Influence Network (WIN), a networking organization for women in Southern Utah. She also serves on the Utah Bar Journal's editorial board as the Utah Law Developments Editor.